Indiana

The Society of Indiana Archivists

The Society of Indiana Archivists celebrated its 25th anniversary during its annual Fall Meeting in November. SIA was founded in 1972 to bring together not only professional archivists, but librarians, manuscript curators, university personnel, local historical society members, and other persons interested in historic document preservation in the state.

The Society reaches out to its members through conferences and workshops as well as to the larger research community through its publication program. SIA sponsors a Fall meeting and traveling workshops. SIA recently sponsored workshops on "Records Management for Archivists" and "Fundamentals of Archival Acquisition and Appraisal." Publications include a brochure on establishing an archives and a directory of records repositories in the state. The directory is available for purchase in hardcopy or on the WWW at <http://cawley.archives.nd.edu/sia/guide/reposito.htm>. The SIA Newsletter is published twice a year. Those interested in SIA are also welcomed to visit our web site at <http://cawley.archives.nd.edu/sia>.

At the recent Fall meeting, the following officers were chosen:

- * Noraleen A. Young, President - Public Historian
- * Stephen E. Towne, Vice President - Indiana State Archives
- * Bonnie Houser, Secretary/Treasurer Taylor University
- * Philip Charles Bantin, Past President - Indiana University

Board members include:

- * Dennis Stoesz - Historical Committee & Archives of the Mennonite Church
- * Stephen G. McShane - Calumet Regional Archives
- * Todd J. Daniels-Howell - IUPUI University Library
- * Brad Vogus - Indiana University Kokomo

The Society of Indiana Archivists invites you to join in protecting the state's documentary heritage. Contact Bonnie Houser, Taylor University, 500 W. Reade Ave., Upland IN 46989 or at bnhouser@tayloru.edu for membership information.

Call for Papers

“The French Connection in Washington D.C.”

For its third bi-annual Symposium on the Historic Development of Metropolitan Washington, D.C., the Latrobe Chapter of the Society of Architectural Historians is seeking papers on the direct and indirect impact, both at the practical and conceptual levels, of French planning, engineering, architecture, landscape and interior design, architectural sculpture and mural painting on the Nation's Capital as well as suburban Virginia and Maryland.

The symposium will be held in Washington at the National Building Museum on Friday evening and Saturday, March 5 and 6, 1999. Its purpose is to feature recent research that encourages both comment and discussion. Papers must be analytical rather than descriptive in nature and will be grouped to provide substantive comparative discussion among the presenters, moderators, and the audience. We are looking for papers that place French connections in a comparative context of political, social, economic and cultural forces. Abstracts will be provided to symposium attendants.

Please mail a 400-word abstract and your curriculum vitae, postmarked by April 30, 1998, to: Isabelle Gournay, Vice President, Latrobe Chapter, SAH, School of Architecture University of Maryland College Park, MD 20782.

All applicants will be notified of the selection by June 30, 1998. December 15, 1998, is the firm deadline for the final draft to be sent to moderators, who will consult the presenters to develop themes for discussion. For further information contact Isabelle Gournay:
Voice: 301-405-6304;
FAX: 301-314 9583;

New JerseyAerial Photo Library

Many people who do historical and archaeological research in New Jersey are not aware that NJ Department of Environmental Protection has a comprehensive aerial photo library available for public use in Trenton just a few doors down from the Historic Preservation Office.

The earliest available aerial photos cover coastal areas of the State and date to 1932-36. Photo coverage of the entire state dates to 1940, and was again accomplished in 1951, 1953-54, 1961, 1972, 1974, 1986, and 1991. Many coastal, tidal, and other areas are also variously represented in 1947, 1956-57, 1958, 1971-72, 1977-78, and 1979.

The Pinelands was also 'flown' in 1977. Older photographs are black and white, while more recent ones are either color or infrared. The scale of the photographs is generally between 1:12,000 and 1:20,000.

In order to access this excellent resource contact Mike Ryan, by mail: Bureau of Tidelands Management NJDEP, PO Box 439, 9 Ewing Street, Trenton, NJ 08625-0401; or by FAX 609-633-6493. Please allow two weeks lead time and enclose a map or maps clearly illustrating the location you are interested in. There is no cost to private citizens, government agencies, or educational institutions. The cost to paid consultants or consulting firms is $100 per site. Checks should be made payable to 'Treasurer, State of New Jersey.' Cash or credit cards cannot be accepted.

The Bureau will not provide interpretations or assist in interpretation of the photographs. If you are interested in more information about photo interpretation and photogrammetry, the American Society of Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing (5420 Grosvenor Lane, Suite 210, Bethesda, MD 20814-2160) has just published the second edition of Manual of Photographic Interpretation.

1998 New Jersey Historic

Hall of American Indians to Open

The Carnegie Museum of Natural History in Pittsburgh, PA, will open the Alcoa Foundation Hall of American Indians on June 6, 1998.

The permanent exhibit explores American Indians in the twentieth century. The historical and cultural knowledge, personal experience and belongings, talents and artwork of about 50 people helped to shape the messages and impact of the hall.

The Council of Three Rivers American Indian Center will host a powwow the first weekend in June as part of the hall's opening festivities. Nearly 1,000 historic and contemporary artifacts representing four major American Indian societies and geographical areas will be on display.

The Carnegie web site offers more information at : <http://www.clpgh.org/cmnh>.

Texas

Official Historic Texas Cemetery Designation

In an effort to document the approximately 50,000 historic cemeteries in the state, the Texas Historical Commission has launched the Official Historic Texas Cemetery designation. Individuals and groups are encouraged to apply for cemetery designations by showing proof that a cemetery is at least 50 years old, giving its exact location, and paying a $25 processing fee. Designation will not restrict private owners' use of their land, but is likely to encourage preservation. Currently, information on the cemeteries is incomplete and scattered among various sources. Contact Gerron Hite at the State Historical Commission 512-475-4167.

Utah

UPAC Spring Meeting

The spring meeting for the Utah Professional Archaeological Council will be held April 24-25, 1998, in the Little Creek Mesa, which is approximately 12 miles southeast of Hurricane, UT. The meeting will be a camp out and while plans are still in progress, the preliminary schedule includes a short business meeting and a symposium of current research. For further information contact Stan McDonald, UPAC President, Manti-LaSal National Forest, 599 W. Price River Drive, Price, UT 84501; 435-637-2817.

Geophysical Survey

IMA Consulting, Inc., with offices in Minneapolis, MN, Bismarck ND, and Fairview, IL offers a full array of geophysical survey services. With five years of experience at a variety of historic and prehistoric sites in eleven states and five countries, the IMAC geophysical survey team can deliver accurate assessments to guide excavation and resource management. Equipped with Geoscan FM 36 gradiometer and RM 15 resistivity meter instruments and a pulseEKKO 1000 ground penetrating radar unit, IMAC uses several software packages to process and visualize survey results to produce high resolution graphics with site coordinates and supporting interpretations.

Archaeological Equipment for Sale or Rent

Do you do archaeology in any of these places?

Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Guam, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wyoming, Canada, Sri Lanka, or Panama.

For over sixteen years, archaeologists in these places has used my plastic drum flotation devices to recover the most from their sites. These durable, portable lightweight devices process large samples quickly and completely. They come ready to hook up to a garden hose. Now the choice of archaeologists from coast to coast, they are only $375.00 complete. If you want to get more out of your sites, call write or FAX for more information.
